

I'm going to Sevenoaks Museum!

Before I go to the museum

I'm going to Sevenoaks Museum.

If I am nervous about going, I can talk to someone and ask questions first.

I can email Sevenoaks Museum:
sevenoaksmuseum@kent.gov.uk

Or I can phone the library on 0300 041 3131 to talk to someone.

About the museum

Inside the building, I can ask the Museum Curator questions by knocking on the office door.

If the Curator is not there, I can talk to the people who work in the Library.

The main museum room is normally quiet and not very busy.

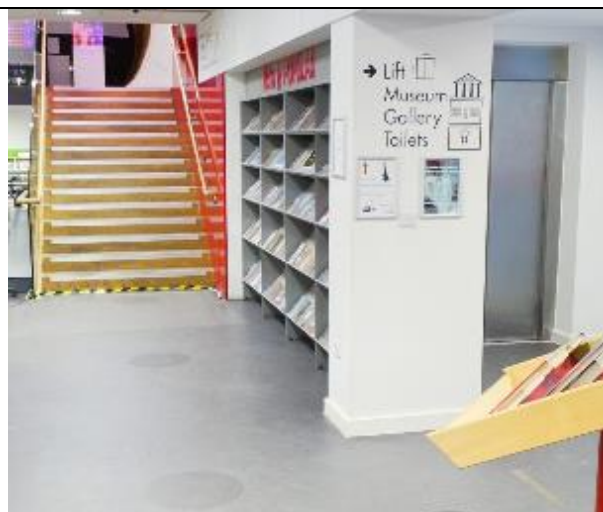

I can check the website to see if any events are taking place at the time of my visit which might make it noisy.

When I visit the Museum

I can find the museum by going through the Library.

There are museum displays to discover on every floor of the building.

I can walk up two sets of stairs or use the lift.

I can also find the museum this way by walking up the ramp and through the automatic doors.

I go up one set of stairs and through this door to find the main museum room.

There is a film about Sevenoaks running.

If I find it too loud, I can ask staff to turn it off for me.

I can borrow a sensory bag
during my visit to help me feel calm and explore the museum displays.

This is what I will find inside a sensory bag.

I can build with toy bricks.

I can try the Kent peg tiles interactive wall.

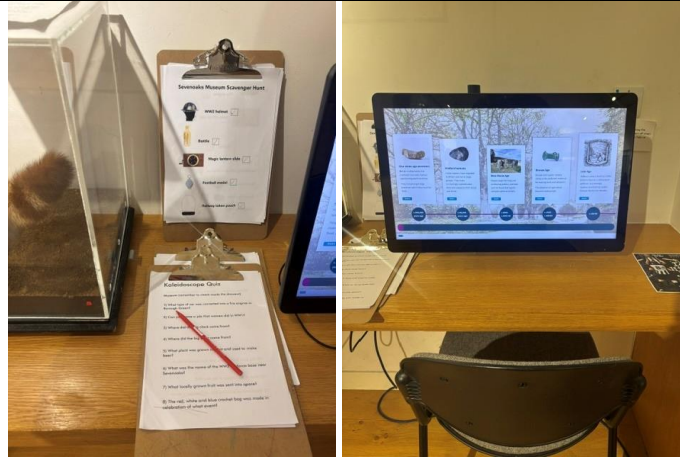

I can dress up in historical costume.

I can take a clipboard around with me and look for the answers to the activity sheets or I can sit down and look at a historical timeline on a touchscreen.

I can learn about Sevenoaks History by looking at the displays.

Some of the displays are in drawer cabinets which I can pull open to see.
